

Teaching and Tomorrow Program

October 23-25, 2014

Thursday, October 23rd 2014

6:45am – 7:45am

ORIENTATION BREAKFAST

Salon A, 2nd Floor

You will receive your badge and meeting materials here. Please arrive on time for breakfast!

Welcome and Introduction to the Program & Meeting (5 minutes)

(Kathleen Loomes, MD – The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia)

Why I LOVE Pediatric GI! (10 minutes)

(Maria Oliva-Hemker, MD – Johns Hopkins Children's Center)

NASPGHAN and The NASPGHAN Foundation: (5 minutes)

(John Barnard, MD – Columbus Nationwide Children's Hospital)

The Fellowship Training Timeline (10 minutes)

(Kathleen Loomes, MD – The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia)

Distribute Handout on Training requirements

The Application Process: the ERAS application for GI

The US and Canadian Match

Navigation Guide to NASPGHAN (5 minutes)

(Garrett Zella, MD – Floating Hospital for Children at Tufts Medical Center)

12:30pm – 1:45pm

LUNCHEON

Salon A, 2nd Floor

Panel Discussion: How Should I Shop for a Fellowship: Location, Size or Paycheck? (20 min)

Panel with fellow representatives from across the US and Canada

(Moderator: Jake Robson, MD – University of California San Francisco)

What is a Mentor and why do I need one? (10 min)

(Karen Murray, MD – Seattle Children's Hospital)

The Fellowship Springboard: Laying a solid Career Foundation during Training (15 min)

(Cary Sauer, MD – Emory Children's Hospital at Egleston)

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS around the table (faculty and fellow at each table) (30 min)

Friday, October 24th 2014

4:15pm – 5:15pm	AWARDS RECEPTION	Grand Ballroom West
5:30 pm –6:45 pm	TEACHING AND TOMORROW RECEPTION	Pool Deck, 3 rd Floor

Saturday, October 25th 2014

7:00 am – 8:00am	WRAP-UP BREAKFAST	Salon C, 2 nd Floor
Discussion of career options in Pediatric GI Group Discussion and Questions (Cary Sauer, Kathy Loomes, Garrett Zella)		