

Friday, October 9, 2015

SATELLITE SYMPOSIA

Medical Mystery: Don't miss a treatable form of neonatal cholestasis

Lincoln Ballroom - Concourse Level

7:30pm – 10:00pm

---

Title:

Medical Mystery: Don't miss a treatable form of neonatal cholestasis

Provider Statement:

This continuing medical education activity is provided by Scientific Communications Group, LLC.

Sponsorship Statement:

This activity is supported by an educational grant from Retrophin, Inc.

Date:

Friday, October 9, 2015

Time:

7:30 pm - 8:00 pm: Registration, Hors d'Oeuvres, and Cocktails

8:00 pm: Dinner and Program

Location:

Washington Hilton

Lincoln Ballroom - Concourse Level

The speakers for this program will be:

Kenneth Setchell, PhD

Director, Mass Spectrometry Lab

Professor, UC Department of Pediatrics

Philip Rosenthal, M.D.

Professor of Pediatrics & Surgery

Director, Pediatric Clinical Research

Director, Pediatric Hepatology and Liver Transplant Research

Director, Pediatric Hepatology

University of California, San Francisco

Binita Kamath, MD, MBBChir, MRCP

Associate Scientist, Genetics & Genome Biology

Staff Gastroenterologist, Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition

Associate Professor, University of Toronto, Department of Paediatrics

This is not a CME presentation.